

Fun in Wales and Scotland

S. 30/1

a)

Example:

I can see a man who is wearing shoes/a helmet.

I can see a building.

I can see a park with trees.

I can see a woman who is playing music.

I can see a man who is doing sport.

I can see a horse.

b))

Example:

Photo 1: The photo shows a man in red clothes. He is in the air. It looks exciting.

Photo 2: The photo shows an old building. There is a park too. It looks nice.

Photo 3: The photo shows a king. It looks amazing.

Photo 4: The photo shows a woman. She is playing music. It looks interesting.

Photo 5: The photo shows a man. He is doing sport. It looks hard.

S. 30/2

a)

A That's text 4.

B That's text 3.

C That's text 1.

D That's text 5.

E That's text 2.

b)

1. Scotland: Edinburgh, bagpipes, The Highland Games; Wales: Cardiff, zip line, Cardiff Castle

2. Scotland: caber toss; Wales: rock climbing, riding a zip line

S. 31/3

Part A:

1. Teens in Wales learn Welsh until they are 16.

2. About every fifth person is good at Welsh.

3. A lot more people speak Welsh in North and West Wales.

Part B:

4. There are Welsh computer games.

5. Simon says the Welsh word for children.

6. At the end Simon says 'Goodbye and see you soon' in Welsh.

S. 32/2

1. Beth and Mark are going to an adventure centre.

2. Mark has already packed his bag.

3. Beth is going to play rugby this time.

4. Mark has always wanted to climb a mountain.

5. Beth has already booked the zip line.

6. Beth wants to talk about their adventures at the snack bar.

S. 33/3

a)

dry – wet exciting – boring long – short old – new quiet – loud small – big

b)

1. Mark thinks that rock climbing is an exciting activity.
2. He bought his helmet a long time ago.
3. He has already packed a big bag for the trip.
4. Mark hopes for dry weather in Wales.
5. The adventure centre is near a small village. About 600 people live there.
6. The bus takes one hour from Cardiff to the adventure centre. It's only a short trip.

S. 33/4

Canoeing in Wales is an interesting (1) sport for everyone.
 Spend a great (2) day on the river. Meet lots of nice (3) people. Canoeing is easy (4) to learn, but you won't stay dry (5). You'll love our exciting (6) trips.

S. 33/5

a)

Group 1 (Ooo): industry, rock climbing, horse riding, interesting
 Group 2 (oOo): together, adventure, canoeing, tradition

S. 34/6

2. Mark has never climbed a mountain.
3. We have already booked our activities.
4. Luke and Simon have already packed their bags.
5. Anna has already looked at the website.

S. 34/7

a)

2. No, thanks. My mum has already seen that film. It was scary.
3. I have thought about going to that film. But I have no time today.
4. Beth can't go. She has just been to the swimming pool.
5. I have already thought about going to that film on my birthday.
6. Great idea! I have just done my homework. Let's go.

b)

Example:

A Hi. Do you want to come to my house?

B Great idea. I have just done my homework. Let's meet in half an hour.

A Sorry, I haven't been to the supermarket yet. Can you come a bit later?

B Sure. See you in an hour!

S. 35/8

a)

1. A Hey Dad, my friends want to play football. Can I play with them?
 B I'm sorry, you can't! You haven't done your homework yet.
2. A Hey Dad, my friends want to go swimming with me. Can I go swimming with them?
 B I'm sorry, you can't! You haven't tidied your room yet.
3. A Hey Dad, my friends want to go to the cinema with me. Can I go to the cinema with them?

- B I'm sorry, you can't! You haven't helped with the shopping yet.
4. A Hey Dad, my friends want to eat a pizza with me. Can I eat a pizza with them?
B I'm sorry, you can't! You haven't taken the rubbish out yet.
5. A Hey Dad, my friends want to meet at the snack bar. Can I go with them?
B I'm sorry, you can't! You haven't phoned your aunt yet.
6. A Hey Dad, my friends want to go to the museum. Can I go with them?
B I'm sorry, you can't! You haven't made your bed yet.

S. 35/9a)

- Beth hasn't phoned Mark yet.
- Beth hasn't helped her dad in the garden yet.
- Beth has already played football.
- Beth hasn't done her homework yet.
- Beth has already made a cake.

b)

Example:

I haven't checked my exercise yet.

I have already cleaned my bike.

I haven't helped my mum in the garden yet.

I have already hoovered the living room.

I haven't tidied my room yet.

S. 36/2

- on the internet
- Stuart
- in the stadium
- at 9:30

S. 37/3

- They want to go to the cinema.
- At 2:30 and at five o'clock.
- They meet at the bus stop.
- They meet at 4:30.

S. 37/4a)

- have
- play
- have
- have
- go
- play
- do
- go
- do
- go
- go
- play
- play

b)

Example:

I often go horse riding.
 My best friend never goes canoeing.
 My parents never play tennis.

S. 37/5

Example:
 I always feed my pet.
 I usually do my homework.
 I often make breakfast.
 I sometimes help Mum and Dad.
 I occasionally tidy my bedroom.
 I never take the dog for a walk.

S. 38/6

2. Have you ever seen the caber toss?
3. Have you ever taken part in Highland dancing?
4. Has your mum ever been to the Highland Games before?
5. Has your dad already booked the seats?
6. Have they decided to take a picnic yet?

S. 38/7

- a)
2. Have you tidied your bedroom yet? No, I haven't.
 3. Have you learned your German words yet? Yes, I have.
 4. Have you made the sandwiches yet? No, I haven't.
 5. Have you done your homework yet? Yes, I have.
 6. Have you been to the supermarket yet? No, I haven't.

b)

- Example:
- A Have you made muffins yet?
 B No, I haven't.
- A Have you ever taken a dog for a walk?
 B Yes, I have.
- A Have you ever watched a Scottish film?
 B No, I haven't.
- A Have you ever tidied the attic?
 B Yes, I have.

S. 39/8

2. Has she learned her German words yet? No, she hasn't.
3. Has she already made a cake for the picnic? Yes, she has.
4. Has she already watched a film? No, she hasn't.
5. Has she taken the rubbish out yet? No, she hasn't.
6. Has she already helped Grandma with the shopping? Yes, she has.

S. 39/9

- Example:
- A Have you ever stayed in a hostel?
 B Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.
- A Have you ever watched a science fiction film?
 B Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.
- A Have you ever bought tickets for a concert?

- B Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.
B Have you ever made a cake?
A Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.

S. 39/10

Example:

- A Do you want to do homework together? We can do the English homework together.
Can you meet at two o'clock?
B Sorry, I haven't been to the supermarket with my dad yet. Have you helped your sister yet?
A No, I haven't. I haven't cleaned my bike either. What about five o'clock then? Is that OK for you?
B That's fine. Let's meet at your house at five.
A Great! See you later!

S. 40/1

Example:

- I think the brochure is about the Highland Games in Scotland.
I think it's about sport in Scotland.
Maybe the brochure is about caber toss.
I think the brochure is about traditions in Scotland.

S. 40/3

2. A famous event is the caber toss.
3. The caber toss can be dangerous.
4. People swing the hammer around their head very fast.
5. There are two ways to throw a stone.
6. Visitors love the Highland Games.

S. 41/4

a)

Examples:

We like the Highland dance best because it's cool. You have to be fit and you have to be interested in music and dancing.

We like the hammer throwing best. It's difficult because the hammer is heavy. You have to be strong. It's exciting.

We like the stone put best. You have to be fit and strong. You have to be interested in sport. It's great.

We like the caber toss best because it's funny. You have to be interested in sport and be strong. It's nice.

What's your favourite activity?

Their favourite activity is Five groups like Highland dancing and one group likes hammer throwing.

b)

Examples:

The caber is very heavy. You have to throw it.

People throw the hammer as far as they can.

There are two different ways to throw a stone.

People play bagpipes and dance at the Highland Games too.

S. 42/2

1. Das Festival findet am 31. Juli statt.

2. Es beginnt um 18:00 Uhr.
3. Die Sängerin aus Swansea heißt Layla.
4. Die Band Rhyme kommt aus Stirling.
5. Spirit ist als letzte Band auf der Black Stage.
6. Die Band Spirit kommt aus England.
7. Awesome tritt als erste Band auf der White Stage auf.
8. Die Band Awesome spielt Hip Hop und Rap-Lieder.
9. Die Brave Men kommen aus New York.
10. Auf der White Stage kann man am besten Techno und Elektropop-Musik hören.

S.43/1

Examples:

I remember that there are castles.
 I remember that you can do sport there.
 You can go hiking.
 You can go canoeing.
 You can go surfing.
 There are mountains.
 There are beaches.

S.43/2

a)

C A D B

b)

1. That's wrong. They are in Wales.
2. That's wrong. They go to the beach.
3. That's right.
4. That's wrong. They can open the briefcase.
5. That's right.
6. That's right.

S.43/3

Example:

☺	☹
I like the ending because it's funny. I think it's interesting/surprising that the briefcase is from a film. The girls are surprised about the film people.	I don't like the ending because it's boring. The film people are not nice.

S. 44/Step 1

Example:

- A Have you done rock climbing yet?
 B Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.
 A When did you go rock climbing?
 B Last summer. I went with my parents.
 A OK. Have you gone hiking yet?

...

S. 44/Step 4

Example:

a)

Three students have been rock climbing. Four students have been hiking before. Two students have been canoeing. Seven students have been skating.

b)

Our topic was outdoor activities. We found out that the students in our class like to be outside. Four students have been hiking before. Four students have tried rock climbing.

...

S.46/1

a)

1. The United Kingdom
2. Scotland
3. Wales
4. Northern Ireland
5. England
6. The Republic of Ireland

b)

The flags of England, Scotland and Northern Ireland are in the Union Flag.

c)

The Union Flag is part of the flag of Australia, Fiji, and New Zealand.

S.47/2

a)

Scotland: B

Wales: C

England: D

Northern Ireland: A

b)

Examples:

There is a rose.

The harp is a symbol of Ireland.

There is Big Ben. It's a symbol of England.

The bagpipe is a symbol of Scotland.

There is a rugby ball. The rugby ball is a symbol of Wales.

There is a girl with red hair. / ...

S.49/1

Example:

Hello, today I'm going to talk about Glasgow. It's the biggest city in Scotland. Many people in Glasgow love football. There are two famous football teams: The Celtic and the Rangers. There are interesting museums in Glasgow and most museums are free. Here you can see the Riverside Museum. It's a museum about transport. It's also free.

Glasgow is famous for its street art too. It has the third-oldest underground in the world.

Did you know that Glasgow is the twin town of Nuremberg? In Glasgow, there are a lot of modern buildings. Here you can see the famous Clyde Arc Bridge. That's the end of my presentation. Do you have any questions?